

Payments Processing for Business Accounts

Ballbutton processes user payments through Stripe, and a Stripe account is required to receive payments through the Ballbutton platform. By enabling payment functionality and linking your Stripe account with your Ballbutton, you agree to the payment of certain fees and charges to Ballbutton, including payment and processing surcharges on amounts processed through the Ballbutton platform as determined from time to time. Ballbutton fees and charges applicable to payment functionality are 0.25% but not less than 5 cents ($ 0.05) for each transaction and, in accordance with the Ballbutton Terms of Service, Ballbutton will make reasonable efforts to keep pricing information published on the website and in our applications up to date. Fees and charges imposed by Stripe <https://stripe.com/pricing> are governed by your agreement with Stripe.
